

How to File a Protest

Authored by: Shannon Whitmore [Shannon.Whitmore@iRacing.com]

Saved From: <http://faq.iracing.com/article.php?id=150>

Protests should be filed when a competitor violates the sporting code. Infractions include but are not limited to " competition issues, voice or text chat, forum posts, retaliation or intentional wrecking, blocking and tire heating.

Protests must be filed here: http://members.iracing.com/membersite/member/protest/file_protest.jsp

Emails or private messages to staff members are not considered protests and will not be reviewed.

You must fill out the online form completely and please provide as much detail as possible when describing the violation.

All protests must be filed within seven days of the infraction or violation.

Full details regarding protests can be found in section 8 of the sporting code document on the member site. gizem filmleri